Subject: CTDOT Study of Transportation Needs and Nonmedical Transportation Services for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD Study) – Stakeholder Survey

As part of its Study of Transportation Needs and Nonmedical Transportation Services for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD Study), the Connecticut Department of Transportation (CTDOT) is conducting an online survey to gather additional input and feedback regarding the transportation needs of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

You are invited to participate in this survey, which will be open through 5:00 PM on Friday, November 22, 2024. You can access the survey via the link or QR Code below.

Please share this survey with any colleagues, caregivers, and/or clients who may be interested in contributing to this important study.
